

The Malta Islamic Finance Conference: A New Beginning 2010

Rehan Noor Pathan

Rehan Pathan is the Head of International Sales at NCB Capital covering Asset Management, Brokerage and Investment Banking sales outside Saudi Arabia. NCB Capital is among the leading regional investment managers as well as the world's largest Shariah Compliant Asset Management Company. NCBC ranks among the top 3 brokers in Saudi Arabia and is a leading player in the domestic Investment Banking arena. Rehan and his team focus on growing NCBC's presence in international markets and help the firm achieve its vision of becoming a leading provider of Shariah Compliant and regional investment management solutions and funds, regional securities trading and access to Saudi Investment Banking opportunities globally.

Rehan joined NCB Capital in September 2008 after 6 years with Deutsche Bank, first in Bahrain and then in Dubai. In his last role with DB, Rehan was with Deutsche Asset Management, based out of the DIFC, Dubai where he was Vice President, DWS Sales and Distribution for the MENA region. In this role he helped build and develop the fund business for DB Asset Management across multiple regional and international distribution channels. One of his key areas of focus was the distribution of the DWS

The Malta Islamic Finance Conference: A New Beginning 2010

NOOR range of Sharia compliant funds.

Prior to his role with the asset management group, Rehan worked for Deutsche Bank's Global Transaction Banking division, where he managed Institutional Sales, again in the MENA region, including Pakistan.

He began his career in 1997 with ABN AMRO, Bahrain, working in the Private Banking and Corporate Banking Divisions.

Rehan is a graduate of the University of Bahrain with a B.Sc. in Business Administration and holds an Executive MBA in Islamic Finance from Cass Business School of City University, London.